

STATE FAIR TO END TONIGHT IN SOLID BLAZE OF FIRE AND GLORY

Fireworks Display Tonight to Be Most Elaborate Ever Seen in West, With Many Novel and Original Designs.

MANAGEMENT GRATIFIED BY CROWDS DURING WEEK

Good Attendance Today All That Is Necessary to Insure Substantial Balance on Right Side of the Ledger.

The thirty-sixth annual New Mexico state fair will come to an end tonight literally in a solid blaze of fire and glory. The fireworks display at the grounds will usher out in a fitting manner what is generally recognized as the most successful, if not the most elaborate display of the state's resources that has ever been made.

The management is gratified by the fact that the crowds have been so good during the week. The attendance today is all that is necessary to insure a substantial balance on the right side of the ledger.

A Financial Success.
It is announced by the management that all that is necessary to insure the financial success of the fair is for good crowds to turn out for the afternoon and night shows today. The management is gratified by the fact that the crowds have been so good during the week.

The crowd at the grounds yesterday afternoon is believed to have been the largest in the history of the fair. The management is gratified by the fact that the crowds have been so good during the week.
